Trekking is a great way to enjoy the beauty of the Western Ghats. Belgaum is a short drive away from here, and offers amazing views of the valleys, with evergreen forests and waterfall. These areas have a variety of wildlife some of which are unique to the area. Belgaum enjoys a salubrious climate throughout the year with moderate rainfall and very low humidity. The evergreen forests of the sanctuary harbor a rich biodiversity. Besides Bhimgad, there are other attractions like the Vajra waterfalls which are worth a visit and the Belgaum fort. (Next to the camp is the Belgaum Golf Course, which is Asia's second largest golf course.)
